

U.S. Embassy Bahrain
Demonstration Notice 58 – October 20, 2013

Today October 20, 2013, at 3:00 p.m., a funeral procession will take place in Sitra. A large gathering of attendees is expected. Although the funeral procession is likely to remain peaceful, there is a strong likelihood for clashes with security forces after the funeral. Anticipate heavy police activity and traffic delays along the Sitra causeway. We recommend that you avoid travel in this area due to the possibility of traffic congestion and clashes between security forces and protesters. (Yellow Ovals)

There has been an escalation in street level civil disobedience activities such as Molotov attacks on police, oil poured across roadways, tire fires outside of traditional areas, and IEDs both real and fake, to disrupt and delay traffic across the country. United States citizens should keep current with media coverage of local events and be aware of their surroundings at all times. If you encounter a large public gathering or demonstration, depart the vicinity immediately.

It is important to note that there have been no direct attacks on U.S. citizens in Bahrain to date. That said, spontaneous and at times violent anti-government demonstrations occur in some neighborhoods, particularly at night and on weekends. These demonstrations have included blockades of major highways with burning debris and establishment of unofficial checkpoints. Participants have thrown rocks and Molotov cocktails and used various other homemade weapons, including isolated use of improvised explosive devices. The Ministry of Interior maintains official checkpoints in some areas and routinely uses tear gas and stun grenades along with birdshot and other crowd control measures against demonstrators. Violent clashes between security forces and demonstrators can make travel in and around Bahrain dangerous without advance warning.

Please see below for a map. Areas shaded in red are off-limits to U.S. Citizen Embassy employees and their family members at all times. U.S. Citizen Embassy employees and their family members are permitted to travel in the areas shaded in yellow during daylight hours only.

We remind U.S. citizens that even demonstrations intended to be peaceful can turn confrontational and possibly escalate into violence. U.S. citizens are therefore urged to avoid the areas of demonstrations if possible, and to exercise caution if within the vicinity of any demonstrations.
